

Daniel Simmons

23338 NE 27th St. • Sammamish, WA 98074 • 425-785-4243

danny@the-simmons.net

SUMMARY

Experienced software developer and manager focused on investing in great people and great products.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Developer, Chief Technology Officer – PasTrak, LLC

February '12 – present Founding member of start-up working to bring big-business accounting techniques and technologies such as RFID and the Internet of Things to small businesses. Architect and developer for PasTrak Inventory Management system built using C# and a variety of .Net technologies including Entity Framework, WCF, WPF and T4. It integrates deeply with QuickBooks and connects to multiple RFID hardware systems.

Dev Lead – INRIX

March '12 – Dev lead for Connected Services team responsible for providing web services which March '13 expose traffic data to a variety of partners and customers including caching and data delivery infrastructure for large volumes of real-time, spatial data.

Dev Lead, Dev Manager, Architect – Microsoft

March '97 – Worked on a number of teams including Outlook, Excel, Live Meeting, Microsoft February '12 Business Solutions, Entity Framework and multiple incubation efforts ranging from office-related products to an ahead-of-time c# compiler. Filled many development roles from individual developer to development manager and software architect but returned most often to the role of leading small development teams. Technology focus was primarily on building the back-end for desktop applications using C++ and C#.

President – NICOH Net, Inc.

October '94 – Founded consulting/Internet firm. Provided Internet access wholesale and retail as March '97 well as custom development and network/Unix consulting primarily for small businesses.

Full-time Staff Unix Programmer/Administrator – Idaho State University

August '91 – Responsible for Internet system administration and Unix support. Ported Unix October '94 applications to HP/UX, and developed custom applications to facilitate access to Internet services.

EDUCATION

Idaho State University – BA Computer Science – December 1994